

Engagement Letter for Tax Services
(Please Read Carefully)

This letter is to confirm and specify the terms of The McKillip Group, Inc.'s ("Accounting Firm's"), engagement with _____, ("Client") and to clarify the nature and extent of the services we will provide as long as you are a client. In order to ensure an understanding of our mutual responsibilities, we ask all clients for whom returns are prepared to confirm the following arrangements. We will not be able to prepare your return without this confirmation.

Services to be provided: We will prepare your _____(Year) tax returns as indicated below. (Please place a checkmark besides the returns you would like us to prepare, specifically listing ALL state, local or additional returns.)

- Federal Income Tax Return
- State Income Tax Return(s) _____(please list states)
- Other Tax Return(s) _____(please list additional returns)

We are not responsible for returns not on the list. We are under no duty to review the information you provide to determine whether you may have a filing obligation with another state, city or other locality. If we become aware of any other filing requirement, we will tell you of the obligation and may prepare the appropriate returns at your request as a separate engagement.

Please note that if you have any income tax filing requirement in a given state but do not file the required income tax return, it is possible that the non-filing could have adverse ramifications including; (i) an unlimited assessment statute of limitations and (ii) inability to claim net operating losses or other tax attributes on any future years' income tax returns. If you have income in any state other than your home state), you are responsible for providing our firm all information necessary to prepare any additional applicable state(s) income tax returns (such as the identity of all states in which you do business).

This engagement letter does not cover the preparation of any financial statements, or any other accounting or advisory services which, if we are to provide, will be covered under a separate engagement letter.

It is your responsibility to provide all the information required for the preparation of complete and accurate returns. You are required to retain all the documents, cancelled checks and other data to substantiate the basis of income and deductions for a minimum of four years. These may be necessary to prove the accuracy and completeness of the returns to a taxing authority. You have the final responsibility for the income tax returns and, therefore, you should review them carefully before you sign them.

Our work in connection with the preparation of your income tax returns does not include any procedures designed to discover defalcations and/or irregularities, should any exist. The returns will be prepared solely from information provided to us without verification.

We will use our judgment to resolve questions in your favor where a tax law is unclear or if there is a reasonable justification for doing so. Whenever we are aware that a possibly applicable tax law is unclear or that there are conflicting interpretations of the law by authorities (e.g., tax agencies and courts), we will explain the possible positions that may be taken on your return. We will follow whatever position you request, so long as it is consistent with the codes and regulations and interpretations that have been promulgated. If the IRS should later contest the position taken, there may be an assessment of additional tax plus interest and penalties. We assume no liability for any such additional penalties or assessments.

If during our work, we discover information that affects prior-year tax returns, we will make you aware of the facts. However, we cannot be responsible for identifying all items that may affect prior-year returns. If you become aware of such information during the year, please contact us to discuss the best resolution of the issue. We will be happy to prepare appropriate amended returns as a separate engagement which will be billed separately from the preparation of this year's tax returns.

The IRS permits you to authorize us to discuss, on a limited basis, aspects of your return for one year after the return's due date. Your consent to such a discussion is evidenced by checking a box on the return. Unless you tell us otherwise, we will check that box authorizing the IRS to discuss your return with us.

We will not file any federal, state or local tax extensions unless you specifically request us to do so in writing, by fax or email. Our fax number is 303-660-5483 and email is Jodi@CastleRockCPAs.com.

In accordance with federal law, in no case will we disclose your tax return information to any location outside the United States, to another tax return preparer outside of our firm for purposes of a second opinion, or to any other third party (except as specified below) for any other purpose without first receiving your written consent. Additionally, all information you provide us in connection with this engagement will be maintained by us on a strictly confidential basis according to our firm's Privacy Policy.

We may from time to time, and depending on the circumstances, use third-party service providers to assist in preparing your return, but these preparers will not make substantive decisions concerning your return. We may share your tax return information with these service providers but remain committed to maintaining the confidentiality and security of your personal information. In addition, we will secure confidentiality agreements with all service providers to maintain the confidentiality of your information and we will take reasonable precautions to determine that they have appropriate procedures in place to prevent the unauthorized release of your confidential information to others. In the event that we are unable to secure an appropriate confidentiality agreement, you will be asked to provide your consent prior to the sharing of your confidential information with the third-party service provider. Furthermore, The McKillip Group Inc. will remain responsible for the work provided by any such third-party service provider.

“Client” Responsibilities:

We will provide you with an information checklist and questionnaire requesting specific information. Completing these forms will assist us in making sure you are well served for a reasonable fee. In providing this information to us, you represent that the information you are supplying is truthful, accurate and complete to the best of your knowledge and that you have truthfully disclosed to us all income and other relevant facts affecting the returns. You further represent that you have provided us true, correct and complete information regarding amounts you claimed as tax deductions, and have maintained written documentation supporting all amounts, including logbooks and receipts. We will not audit or otherwise verify the information you give us; however, we may ask for additional clarification of some information.

You will contact us immediately if you discover additional information that will lead to a change in your return, or if you receive any letters from the IRS, state, or local taxing authorities.

The Internal Revenue Code and regulations impose preparation and disclosure standards with non-compliance penalties on both the preparer of a tax return and on the taxpayer. These standards differ and are higher for return preparers than taxpayers. To avoid exposure to these penalties, it may be necessary in some cases to make certain disclosures to you and/or in the tax return concerning positions taken on the return that don't meet these standards. Accordingly, we will discuss tax positions that may increase the risk of exposure to penalties and any recommended disclosures with you before completing the preparation of the return. If we conclude that we are obligated to disclose a position and you refuse to permit the disclosure, we reserve the right to withdraw from the engagement and you agree to compensate us for our services to the date of withdrawal. Our engagement with you will terminate upon our withdrawal.

Tax Examinations:

You understand that taxing authorities may examine the returns and that penalties may be imposed on returns that are late, underpaid, or incorrect. In the event of an audit, you may be requested to produce documents, records, or other evidence to substantiate the items of income and deduction shown on a tax return. As such, you should know that IRS audit procedures will almost always include questions on bartering transactions and on deductions that require strict documentation such as all charitable contributions, and business travel, meals, usage of autos, computers, and cell phones. In preparing your returns we rely on your representations that we have been informed of all bartering transactions and that you understand and have complied with the documentation requirements for your expenses and deductions. We are not responsible for disallowed deductions, or the inclusion of additional unreported income or any resulting taxes, penalties, or interest. If you have questions about these issues, please contact us.

Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. Our standard tax preparation fee does not include responding to inquiries or examination by taxing authorities. However, we will be available, upon request, to represent you. You understand that you will be charged an additional fee if we are asked to assist or represent you in a tax examination OR INQUIRY.

Included in your tax return is an additional fee for Audit Representation. If you do not see a separate fee and would like to receive representation, please notify us. If you do not want the fee included, you must opt out below by initialing the statement on the signature line. The representation fee includes up to 3 hours of taxpayer representation fees. Additionally, you will receive a $50/hour off our standard billing rate for any additional representation hours needed.

You understand that, in the event of a preparer error, you are responsible for additional tax and interest that may be due, but our responsibility is to pay for any penalty (as limited below) that the IRS, state or local taxing authorities may assess. Penalties paid by the Accounting Firm will be limited to the total amount of fees paid by you to us under the terms of this agreement.

Compensation:

Our fees are not contingent on the results of our services. Fees for our tax return preparation services are based upon the appropriate market rate for the level and value of services rendered. Our bill for this engagement will be due and payable upon completion of these returns and additional services will not be performed until the bill for these services is paid in full. You understand that your bill will be based upon the predetermined amount given to you in Exhibit A attached or by the standard billing rates presented to you.

In the event that payment is not received when due, you will be assessed interest charges of 1½% per month on the unpaid balance. We reserve the right to suspend or terminate our work due to non-payment. In accordance with our firm policies, work may be suspended if your account becomes ninety (90) days or more overdue and will not be resumed until your account is paid in full. The suspension or termination of our work may cause you to fail to meet deadlines imposed by creditors, governments or other third-parties or may result in other adverse consequences and is a proper consequence of nonpayment of our statements. In the event that our work is suspended or terminated as a result of non-payment, you agree that we will not be responsible for your failure to meet government and other filing deadlines, or for penalties or interest that may be assessed against you resulting from your failure to meet said deadlines. Additionally, if we elect to terminate our services for nonpayment, our engagement will be deemed to have been completed upon written notification of termination, even if we have not completed the services contemplated in this engagement. You will be obligated to compensate us for all time expended and to reimburse us for all out-of-pocket expenditures through the date of termination. In the event that any collection action is required to collect unpaid balances due us, you agree to reimburse us for our costs of collection, including attorney fees.

File Destruction Policy:

Pursuant to the Colorado Statute, the Accountant shall have the right to destroy all files pertaining to Client's matter(s) upon the earlier of (i) thirty (30) days after written notice from Accounting Firm to Client of Accountant's intent to destroy such files with the opportunity for Client to obtain same, or (ii) five (5) years after the close of any matter for Client, regardless of whether the Accounting Firm has sent Client notice of Accounting Firm's intent to destroy the file.

Except for any documents provided by Client to Accounting Firm, all files generated or obtained by Accounting Firm during the preparation of the tax return are the property of Accounting Firm.

Privileged Communication:

The Internal Revenue Service Restructuring and Reform Act of 1998 provides a limited confidentiality privilege for certain communications between you and our firm involving tax advice. This privilege does not cover items other than tax advice. Examples of items not covered are your tax records, tax return preparation, state tax proceedings, criminal proceedings, or private civil litigation. Any disclosure of qualifying confidential information to the government or third parties may result in waiver of the confidentiality privilege. To protect your right to privileged communication, please contact us if you have any questions or need further information.

Subpoenas and Outside Inquiries:

Should we receive any request for the disclosure of privileged information from any third party, including a subpoena or IRS summons, we will notify you prior to responding to it if we are legally permitted to do so. You may, within the time permitted for our firm to respond to any request, initiate such legal action as you deem appropriate to protect information from discovery. If you take no action within the time permitted for us to respond or if your actions do not result in a judicial order protecting us from supplying requested information, we may construe your inaction or failure as consent to comply with the request. In the event you direct us to not make the disclosure, you agree to hold us harmless from any expenses incurred in defending the privilege, including, by way of illustration only, our attorney's fees, court costs, outside advisor's costs, or penalties or fines imposed as a result of your asserting the privilege or your direction to us to assert the privilege. In the event we are required to respond to a subpoena, court order or other legal process for the production of documents and/or testimony relative to information we obtained and/or prepared during the course of this engagement, you agree to compensate us at our hourly rates, as set forth above, for the time we expend in connection with such response, and to reimburse us for all of our out-of-pocket costs incurred in that regard.

Dispute Resolution:

If any dispute, controversy, or claim arises among the parties of this agreement, either party may, upon written notice to the other party, request that the matter be mediated. Such mediation will be conducted by a mediator appointed by and pursuant to the Rules of the American Arbitration Association (AAA) under its Commercial Mediation Rules or such other neutral facilitator acceptable to both parties. Both parties will exert their best efforts to discuss with each other in good faith their respective positions in an attempt to finally resolve such dispute or controversy. Any mediation initiated as a result of this engagement shall be administered within (county and state).

Each party may disclose any facts to the other party or to the mediator which it, in good faith, considers necessary to resolve the matter. All such discussions, however, will be for the purpose of assisting in settlement efforts and will not be admissible in any subsequent litigation against the disclosing party. Except as agreed by both parties, the mediator will keep confidential all information disclosed during negotiations. The mediator may not act as a witness for either party in any subsequent arbitration between the parties.

The mediation proceedings will conclude within sixty (60) days from receipt of the written notice unless extended or terminated sooner by mutual consent. Each party will be responsible for its own expenses. The fees and expenses of the mediator, if any, will be borne equally by the parties.

If any dispute, controversy, or claim cannot be resolved by mediation, then the dispute, controversy, or claim will be settled by final and binding arbitration in accordance with the Rules of the American Arbitration Association (AAA) for the Resolution of Accounting Firm Disputes. No prehearing discovery will be permitted unless specifically authorized by the arbitration panel. The arbitration hearings will take place in the city closest to the place where this agreement was performed in which the AAA maintains an office, unless the parties agree to a different locale.

The award issued by the arbitration panel may be confirmed in a judgment by any federal or state court of competent jurisdiction. All reasonable costs of both parties, as determined by the arbitrators, including (1) the fees and expenses of the AAA and the arbitrators and (2) the costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, necessary to confirm the award in court, will be born entirely by the non-prevailing party (to be designated by the arbitration panel in the award) and may not be allocated between the parties by the arbitration panel.

Such arbitration shall be binding and final. In agreeing to arbitration, we both acknowledge that in the event of a dispute over fees charged by the accountant, each of us is giving up the right to have the dispute decided in a court of law before a judge or jury and instead we are accepting the use of arbitration for resolution.

Potential errors may occur in your tax return(s) that can result in damages that may be many times the amount of the fees for this engagement. In order to induce us to accept this engagement, you therefore agree that our liability for any negligent errors or omissions committed by us in the performance of the engagement will be limited to the total amount of fees paid by you to us under the terms of this agreement.

Because there are inherent difficulties in recalling or preserving information as the period after an engagement increases, you agree that, notwithstanding the statute of limitations of the State of (state), any claims based on this engagement must be filed within twelve (12) months after performance of our service, unless you have previously provided us with a written notice of a specific defect in our services that forms the basis of the claim.

In the event that any portion of this engagement letter is deemed invalid or unenforceable, said finding shall not operate to invalidate the remainder of this engagement letter.

New-Employee Retention Credits:

This firm does not file for Employee Retention Credits (ERC) or advise on the eligibility of these credits. Any work with regard to these credits are not included in this engagement. It is your responsibility to provide information regarding receipt of these credits. The receipt of these credits may require filing amended tax returns. Any amended tax returns would be included in a separate engagement.

New-Corporate Transparency Act (CTA):

On January 1, 2021, congress enacted the Anti-Money Laundering Act of 2020 which established the Corporate Transparency Act (CTA). Mandated by the act, beneficial ownership reporting requirements will be phased -in beginning January 1, 2024. These reporting requirements are not a part of the tax return engagement and are not included as a part of this agreement. We have additional information at our office regarding the CTA which we can provide per your request. We would recommend you contact legal counsel for advice in this matter.

Confirmation of Agreement:

This Agreement is binding upon the Client, any Guarantor(s) and Accounting Firm, their heirs, legal representatives, successors and assigns, and shall be construed and governed by the laws of the State of Colorado. Any material changes or additions to the terms set forth in this letter will only become effective if evidenced by a written amendment to this letter, signed by all of the parties.
